In Loving Memory of

Deloris Betty Hanes

(April 23, 1951 - December 29, 2007)

I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday and days before that too, I think of you in silence I often speak your name all I have are memories of you and your picture in a frame, Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part God has you in his keeping I have you in my heart.

Russ Hanes

Heavenly Love

My love is still deeper than the ocean is blue, and it's sent with hugs and kisses...From me to you. I know you are with me each and everyday, you listen as i talk to you...and hear what i have to say, for that is one thing death can not do...You'll always be a part of me... And me a part of you. I miss you so much sunshine each and everyday, my love for you & your love for me I know will never sway... I love you with every beat of my heart, I know we will be together again... And then we'll never part. So you see the meaning is still the same... the method of delivery is the only change; Mine must be sent by a little white dove... On the wings of heavenly love.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, olive-green background that resembles aged paper or parchment. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.
